ON THE COVER

Two of the brightest highlights of "I Love Bulldogs Day". Top - the cheering squad of Old Rochester as they rode in the half-time parade. Bottom - the Old Rochester second touchdown. The Old Rochester team was again plagued by costly errors in a long afternoon. Final score was Falmouth 33, Old Rochester 12.

195 ROUTE SET

NORTH STREET TO BE FEEDER ROAD

Route 195 has been definitely defined and Mattapoisett Selectmen have a plan of the path of the road through the town. The cloverleaf will start at Railroad Avenue and 195 will run just north of the town dump site parallel with Railroad Avenue. There will be an underpass on Crystal Spring Road.

Zoning Changes

The Public Hearing on the Proposed Zoning By-Law for Mattapoisett was sparsely attended Monday, October 23rd. The Zoning Board outlined several proposed changes which were suggested by those who attended the meeting on October 16th.

The changes, which are under consideration, are these: to enlarge the limited industrial district to include the adjoining business district on Route 6 and to run north to the old railroad line and west to the old "Prince line" and R20 District; there are 6 proposals to enlarge and extend business districts; in all, 9 changes are outlined.

There was opposition to the 7500 square foot area for waterfront property and a poll was taken at the meeting. A majority of those present favored a larger lot for waterfront residences. Members of the Zoning Board stated that much discussion had been had on this point and that the figure of 7,500 had represented what they felt that the town would accept. They said that since most beach property has already been established that the point really had no great impact on future development. They pointed out that this proposal provided for 10,000, 15,000 and 20,000 square foot lots as well as the smallest of 7,500.

A question was asked on screening - whether it was necessary to screen unsightly machinery in a business already operating in a residential area. The answer is no. Any existing non-conforming use of land will be allowed to continue in the same form as now.

Several questions regarding trailers were asked and much discussion evolved on the question of when is a trailer not a trailer or not regarded as a trailer. Attorney Hicks defined the laws as prohibiting all house

Following the presentation of the Bowl by President Kenneth Gleason, another important phase takes place. Six junior girls representing the two high schools will be vying for the title of Miss Cranberry Bowl 1968. The present queen, Miss Becky Zora, of ORRHS, will crown her successor during the evening. Previously these young ladies will have been judged and interviewed by three qualified judges who have the difficult task of selecting Miss Cranberry Bowl. Representing ORRHS will be Sandra Arruda, Rochester; Nancy Joslin, Marion; Nancy LaFrance, Mattapoisett. From WHS, Linda Carey, Francine Canute and Susan Tamaging.

These young ladies were recently voted by their junior and senior classmates to compete for the title, trophy, cash award and the honor of representing the Regional Scholarship Club for the year.

This Veterans' Day promises to be very exciting and enjoyable for the High Schools and surrounding towns involved, Marion, Mattapoisett and Wareham.

LONG PLAIN PREPARATIVE MEETING

At a meeting of Long Plain Preparative Meeting, held in East Mattapoisett Quaker Meeting House, a tentative date of November 4th was set for ceremonies to dedicate an outdoor pulpit in front of the Meeting House, which is in memory of Mrs. Mary Dexter, a long-time member. It is hoped that members of her family and many interested friends will attend. Mrs. Dexter's daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Bryant, expressed special thanks of the family for the assistance of Raymond Winslow.

A short song service was held with Mrs. Helen Winslow serving as pianist. The pastor, Mr. Ralph Staples, spoke on the 23rd Psalm. The business meeting was in charge of Mrs. Bertha Pierce, clerk.

A meeting of the overseers, Joseph Power, Mrs. Dorothea LeBaron and Mrs. Edna L. Borden, will be held soon to discuss repairs to the Meeting House.

Mrs. Ruth W. Shaw, president of Hilltop Friendship Circle, was chairman of the luncheon served in the Sunday School rooms.
